FIRST READING

Isaiah 58:7-10

Thus says the Lord:

Share your bread with the hungry,
and shelter the homeless poor; clothe
the man you see to be naked and turn not from your own kin. Then your light will shine like the dawn and your wound be quickly healed over.

Your integrity will go before you and the glory of the Lord behind you.
Cry, and the Lord will answer; call,
and he will say, 'I am here.'

If you do away with the yoke, the clenched fist, the wicked word, if you give your bread to the hungry, and relief to the oppressed, your light will rise in the darkness, and your shadows become like noon.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 111:4-9

A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 2:1-5

When I came to you, brothers, it was not with any show of oratory or philosophy, but simply to tell you what God had guaranteed. During my stay with you, the only knowledge I claimed to have was about Jesus, and only about him as the crucified Christ. Far from relying on any power of my own, I came among you in great 'fear and trembling' and in my speeches and the sermons that I gave, there were none of the arguments that belong to philosophy; only a demonstration of the power of the Spirit. And I did this so that your faith should not depend on human philosophy but on the power of God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 8:12

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the light of the world, says the Lord; the man who follows me will have the light of life.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus said to his disciples, 'You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes tasteless, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing, and can only be thrown out to be trampled underfoot by men.

'You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill-top cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your

SOCIAL JUSTICE

8 February—St Josephine Bakhita

The International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking was observed for the first time on the Feast of St Josephine Bakhita in 2015. Each year around 2.5 million people are victims of trafficking and slavery. Sixty per cent of them are women and children. Pope Francis has strongly denounced trafficking of human beings, calling it 'a crime against humanity' and calling on all to fight and care for its victims.

Sr Josephine Bakhita was born in Southern Sudan in 1869, kidnapped as a child and sold into slavery. She was resold several times but in 1883 was brought to Italy where in 1893 she joined the Canossian Sisters. She was canonised in 2000 and her feast day has been named as the World Day of Prayer, Reflection and Action Against Human Trafficking.

28th World Day of the Sick

A message from Pope Francis for the 28th World Day of the Sick to be celebrated on 11 February 2020:

"Through the World Day of the Sick, the Church seeks to express part of its mission through care of those in need. The ministry of Jesus was taken up very much with the healing and care of the sick. May the Church continue to strive to follow the example of the One whom we serve."

BUSHFIRE ASHES FOR ASH WEDNESDAY

The following is an excerpt from Fr Philip Marshall's letter of 31/1/20:

"Dear brothers and sisters,

We continue to hold you very much in our thoughts and prayers following the terrible experiences of bushfire you have endured, and conscious that the possibility of further risk remains.

You will remember that some time ago I indicated to the Archdiocese that we would collect ashes from the parishes affected by fire which could be distributed on Ash Wednesday as a sign of our diocesan solidarity with you and your communities.

Lent is a time of repentance and renewal, of turning to God, each other and to creation in restored relationship. The inclusion of ashes from your fires will be a sign of both of our solidarity with you and of our commitment to build a world of Easter hope for all.

I now invite you to provide ashes from fire affected parts of your community."

Our Parish will be providing ashes from Kangaroo Island as part of this very meaningful initiative.

good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.'

DID YOU KNOW?

- In the ancient world, salt was essential. It was used not simply to season food or to add to its taste, but as a preservative, enabling food to be stored and kept.
- At the time of Jesus, the main source of oil for lamps was the olive. A saucer-shaped lamp held the oil, and a wick, made of flax or a similar material, burned from a small opening on the rim. Such lamps were often placed in a niche in the walls of rooms.
- Lamp oil was a precious commodity. Once lit, a lamp was often placed high to give maximum illumination.
- Ancient cities were often built on hilltops so that they were easily defended against invaders and were visible for many miles around.

SYMBOLS AND IMAGES

The people of Israel often described the Law of God as 'salt' because it gave zest and flavour to life and it preserved them as the people of God. Similarly, the Law was often compared to a light that showed them the path to God: 'Your word is a light to my feet and a lamp to my path' (Psalm 119:105). Jerusalem, the city on the hill, was a focal point and reminder of God's presence. Jesus gives a new focus to all these images when he applies them to those who hear his word and put it into practice. All Christians are called to be 'salt' and 'light', a 'city on the hill' giving witness to God's presence.

EXPLORING THE WORD

To understand this text, it is important to place it alongside the Beatitudes that immediately precede it. In that text, the virtues to be cultivated by followers of Jesus are outlined, but the danger with taking the Beatitudes on their own is that faith can become contented peacefulness and somewhat inward-looking.

To avoid this risk, Matthew follows the Beatitudes with this text, which teaches disciples about the task of Christians in the world. They have been given the gifts; they are the salt of the earth. But if they just see their blessedness and rest there, they risk becoming 'tasteless' and good only to be 'trampled underfoot'. Instead, the disciples are urged to place their light high on a hill and let it shine for all to see. They are witnesses to God's living presence, not just for the nation of Israel but for all the world. In seeing the way that Christians live and act—their 'good works'—others will be drawn to God through their active witness to faith. Others will come to give praise to God in heaven.

This is an amazing responsibility, and Jesus acknowledges that some salt may lose its taste and some lights be hidden. The challenge for Christians, new and old, is not to take the gift of faith for granted and let it become tasteless; not to keep the light confined to private moments but to allow others to see the difference faith makes so that they can know the presence and power of God.
