FIRST READING

Ezekiel 18:25-28

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows: 'You object, "What the Lord does is unjust." Listen, you House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust?

When the upright man renounces his integrity to commit sin and dies because of this, he dies because of the evil that he himself has committed. When the sinner renounces sin to become law-abiding and honest, he deserves to live. He has chosen to renounce all his previous sins; he shall certainly live; he shall not die.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 24:4-9

Remember your mercies, O Lord.

SECOND READING

Philippians 2:1-11

If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no conceit; but everybody is to be self-effacing. Always consider the other person to be better than yourself, So that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people's interests instead. In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus:

His state was divine, yet he did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are; and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia!

My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

SOCIAL JUSTICE

27 September—Migrant and Refugee Sunday 2020

Like Jesus Christ, Forced to Flee

Celebrated on 27 September, Migrant and Refugee Sunday is a time when the whole Church throughout the world celebrates the resilience and contribution of migrants and refugees to the church and society. It is also a time where we bring awareness to the issues migrants and refugees face.

We are currently in a crisis due to COVID-19. Many people seeking asylum and on temporary visas have lost their jobs or are relying on charitable organisations for income, housing and food bank support. We as Catholics are called to be in solidarity with our brothers and sisters through prayer, sharing their stories and action.

Mass will be celebrated at 2.30pm at St Francis Xavier's Cathedral. The Mass will be live streamed due to COVID-19 restrictions and can be viewed live and on demand on the home page of www.adelaide.catholic.org.au. Further details are on the noticeboard.

AT LAST – AN UPDATE ON OUR TIMOR LESTE PROJECT

Due to Covid-19, Sr Anne was unable to leave Australia. However, I recently received the 'on ground' Annual Report, from Filipina Sr Gilbert Mary – via Mercy Works HQ in Sydney.

The good news is our Nutritional Education Project for mothers, babies and surrounding villagers, is still progressing. The extra protein from locally sourced chickens, eggs and fish, is making a difference.
(We raised money for these last year).

In addition the Sisters run Ante & Post-Natal groups and now a Hostel for up to 50 girls from the surrounding area, who attend school in Maucatar.

In the past year, 204 mothers were deemed 'at serious risk' of malnutrition, plus 232 children under 5 years. (1,143 children were tested.) TB, Pneumonia, Infections generally and now COVID concerns increase the need for education in good hygiene, as well as Nutrition. Difficult with a sad lack of sanitation!

The Sisters stay in touch with the mothers, holding local clinics, and travel to outer villages. (You may recall mountainous terrain and very rough roads).

Everything they do, with so little, is appreciated by the locals, especially the women.

Many in our parish are experiencing hardship at present, but adding the Timorese to your Prayer list is FREE!

This year our Timor 3rd World project is 26 years young! We can't let the Virus beat us.

I will always take your money. Or - you can put it in an envelope marked 'TIMOR', in a collection bag or in the Parish office.

I am happy to enlarge on this report.
Thank you for your support and God Bless.

Julia Macey – (Timor Liaison)

opinion? A man had two sons. He went and said to the first, "My boy, you go and work in the vineyard today." He answered, "I will not go," but afterwards thought better of it and went. The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, "Certainly, sir," but did not go. Which of the two did the father's will? 'The first' they said. Jesus said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you, a pattern of true righteousness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him.'

DID YOU KNOW?

- The 'chief priests and elders' are the leaders of the Jewish religious community. They were the ones with training and were learned in the Scriptures. They should have known and recognised what is from God but they are like the son who says 'yes' and fails to carry out God's will.
- Prostitutes and tax collectors are often bracketed together because both were considered 'sinners': prostitutes for their sexual behaviour and tax collectors because they cooperated with the Roman authorities and cheated their own people.

EXPLORING THE WORD

A great deal has happened since last week's gospel reading in the lectionary. Jesus is now in Jerusalem. He has entered the city (Mt 21:1-11) and has taken possession of the Temple, driving out those who corrupt his Father's house (Mt 21:12-17). The crisis point of Jesus' ministry has arrived and he will enter into conflict with the established religious authorities.

The point of this text is that it is not the 'conventionally religious', who mouth all the right words and go through the rituals, who will enter the kingdom. Instead it is the ones who, by their actions, carry out God's will and so will become the sons and daughters of God. John the Baptist, like Jesus himself, not only preached righteousness, he lived it. Jesus describes him as 'a pattern of true righteousness' (Mt 21:32) and it was the broken people, the tax collectors and prostitutes, who accepted what he had to bring. They believed in him, repented and experienced a change of heart and life.

LIVING THE WORD

- Words are one thing, but deeds are another. In the long run it is deeds which count more. 'Actions speak louder than words'. More importantly, this little story tells us that change is possible, even after a negative decision. We have the ability to have second thoughts and respond generously; we can decide to do the right thing. At times, it is those who are not expected to do the right thing that surprise us!
- Who are the people in your life who inspire you because of the consistency of their vision and action?
- Sometimes it is the simple people who inspire us the most. How might you emulate their approach? Are there ways you can be an inspiration for others? Are there ways you can publicly witness to saying 'yes' or acting for justice this week?
